

The Town of Hyde Park Historical Society Museum in the former firehouse building at 4389 Albany Post Road will be opening for the season on Saturday, June 4th, 10:00 to 2:00 p.m. Stop by when you are at the Farmer's Market at the town hall. We have a new exhibit of the St. James Church Bicentennial Celebration, as well as lots of Hyde Park memorabilia donated by the townspeople. We also have the U.S. Army's 240th MP Battalion artifacts. They were located at the Vanderbilt Coach House and the Rogers Estate in Hyde Park during President Roosevelt's administration. Check out the voting machine that still has the ballot intact when FDR ran against Herbert Hoover in 1932. There is no fee, however, donations are appreciated. See our website at: www.townofhydeparkny-historicalsociety.org

For information call the Director, John Mottalini, at 845-625-9894, or Gert Trani at 845-229-5561.
